School Mission and Goals

We are committed to providing a learning environment rich in the arts, where students achieve academic and social excellence while solving real-life problems in a cooperative manner. We strive to teach all children the importance, value, and worth of:

- Care for Self: Integrity – Honesty - Respect
- Care for Others: Kindness - Dependability
- Care for Community: Civic Responsibility

On Campus Incidents 1

High expectations of good behavior are lessons that last a lifetime for all students. We have a zero tolerance policy in dealing with student misbehavior. Zero tolerance forbids any action that injures another person emotionally, educationally or physically. Any activity causing a disruption to the educational process effects many more people than the student performing the action. We hold our students to the highest standards and as an administration we have discovered that having high standard
